

For those living in the B-grade signal areas, even though our locals are broadcasting digital signals most are not at full power. This keeps us from receiving HDTV on the networks since most will not grant waivers to B-grade areas. So that we aren't forced to wait another 2-3 years to enjoy our equipment purchases, shouldn't it be possible to order the granting of temporary waivers until these networks are at full power ?